

PROGRAMME FOR MINISTERIAL CANDIDATES FOR B.D. FROM MARGINALIZED AND RURAL BACKGROUNDS

In response to the needs of candidates from marginalized and rural backgrounds who are planning to pursue their theological studies at the United Theological College (UTC), Bangalore, or seeking admission in any other college, UTC offers an Academic Guidance Programme (AGP), in order to help them get acquainted with the academic atmosphere of the UTC and to assist them in improving their knowledge as well as their academic skills. The UTC, therefore, invites applications from socio-economically deprived candidates from the rural backgrounds, especially women, Dalits and Tribals, who are aspiring to do theological studies. This programme will be held as follows:

Duration of the Programme: October 25th to November 07th, 2021

Eligibility: Graduate/Post-graduate from a recognized University.

Only a limited number of scholarships are available to cover tuition fees of selected candidates.

The duly filled in Application Form must be sent to the following email ID: registrarutc@gmail.com on or before October 01st, 2021.
